Having undergone a recent programme of redecoration and benefitting from newly fitted carpets, this beautiful property boasts an enviable waterside location and offers the discerning purchaser the opportunity to live in a tranquil setting with beautiful views. Hamble's countless restaurants, pubs and amenities are in close proximity and for the sailing enthusiast there is a variety of sailing clubs nearby, including the Royal Southern Yacht Club which is adjacent to the property.

The Cordage is an impressive four-bedroom home arranged across three floors. The layout is thoughtfully designed to maximize the stunning water views. Situated in the heart of Hamble-le-Rice, this property is located along a quaint cobbled street which centuries ago was home to a shipbuilding industry. Some of the ships built include those from the Georgian Royal Navy and in these factories large quantities of rope was produced. This practice is remembered in the street named 'Rope Walk'.

Whilst the dwelling already offers generously proportioned rooms, there may be the opportunity to expand the property with either a mansard roof, in the large loft, or a roof terrace, plus ground floor extensions similar to other properties on Rope Walk (subject to planning permission).

Whether you are looking to enjoy the peaceful surroundings or explore the nearby amenities, The Cordage offers the best of both worlds. Don't miss the chance to make this waterside retreat your new home. Call us today to arrange a viewing.

THE LOCAL AREA

Hamble-Le-Rice is a picturesque Village situated on the South Coast of England, renowned for the local sailing facilities, Marinas, Sailing Clubs, eating and drinking establishments and beautiful Riverside walks.

Whilst the village has retained its character, the surrounding area has grown to support three marinas and a host of shops, pubs and restaurants, services and businesses. There are woodland and coastal walks to enjoy, two country parks are situated nearby; The Royal Victoria Country Park and Manor Farm Country Park.

The community benefits from local junior and senior schools, children's clubs and Hamble Parish Council. The sporting opportunities include sailing clubs such as the Hamble River Sailing Club, Royal Southern Yacht Club, Warsash Sailing Club etc.

Within Hamble, there are three marinas; Hamble Point Marina, Port Hamble Marina and Mercury Marina.

Hamble Point Marina offers 230 berths and lies at the mouth of the River Hamble, with easy access to the world famous waters of the Solent, a magnet for competitive sailors from around the globe, it's a favourite with racing and cruising yachtsman alike.

Port Hamble Marina offers 310 berths is situated on the River Hamble in the heart of the South Coast's sailing scene. The marina has a proud heritage of refitting and maintaining racing yachts, a tradition that continues today with many different yacht services based at the marina.

Offering 360 berths the Mercury Marina was originally built by Sir Robin Knox Johnson, Mercury Yacht Harbour is situated in a sheltered wooded site where the shallow waters of Badnam Creek join the River Hamble. The marina offers deep water at all states of tide and among its excellent facilities are a chandlery as well as a bar and restaurant with waterfront views.

Hamble is easily accessible by a range of public transport links. It has bus routes running from the Southampton City Centre to Hamble and vice versa, train station with lines to Southampton Central and Portsmouth Harbour and the Pink Ferry service from Hamble to Warsash.

By car, Hamble is approximately 3 miles from M27 J8 and approximately 9 miles from Southampton Parkway where trains connect with London Waterloo. Southampton Parkway is also the location for Southampton Airport which offers direct flights to numerous European countries.
