£1,750,000 Freehold

This rare waterside detached dwelling was originally built in 1884 and has since been significantly extended and tastefully modernised by the current owners. It offers panoramic views of the River Hamble from numerous rooms and is within close proximity of two popular marinas. The public hard is only a short stroll away, which is ideal particularly for those with an interest in water based activities. The front garden with its river view is ideal for Alfresco dining. The delightful enclosed rear garden has a store, log cabin and separate area for growing home produce.

Local Area

This wonderful home is located within a beautiful conservation area on the River Hamble in Hampshire, renowned for its outstanding natural beauty. The house is perfectly situated for the discerning purchaser that has a particular interest in yachts and motor-boats alike.

Swanwick marina is within walking distance that offers a range of marine services.

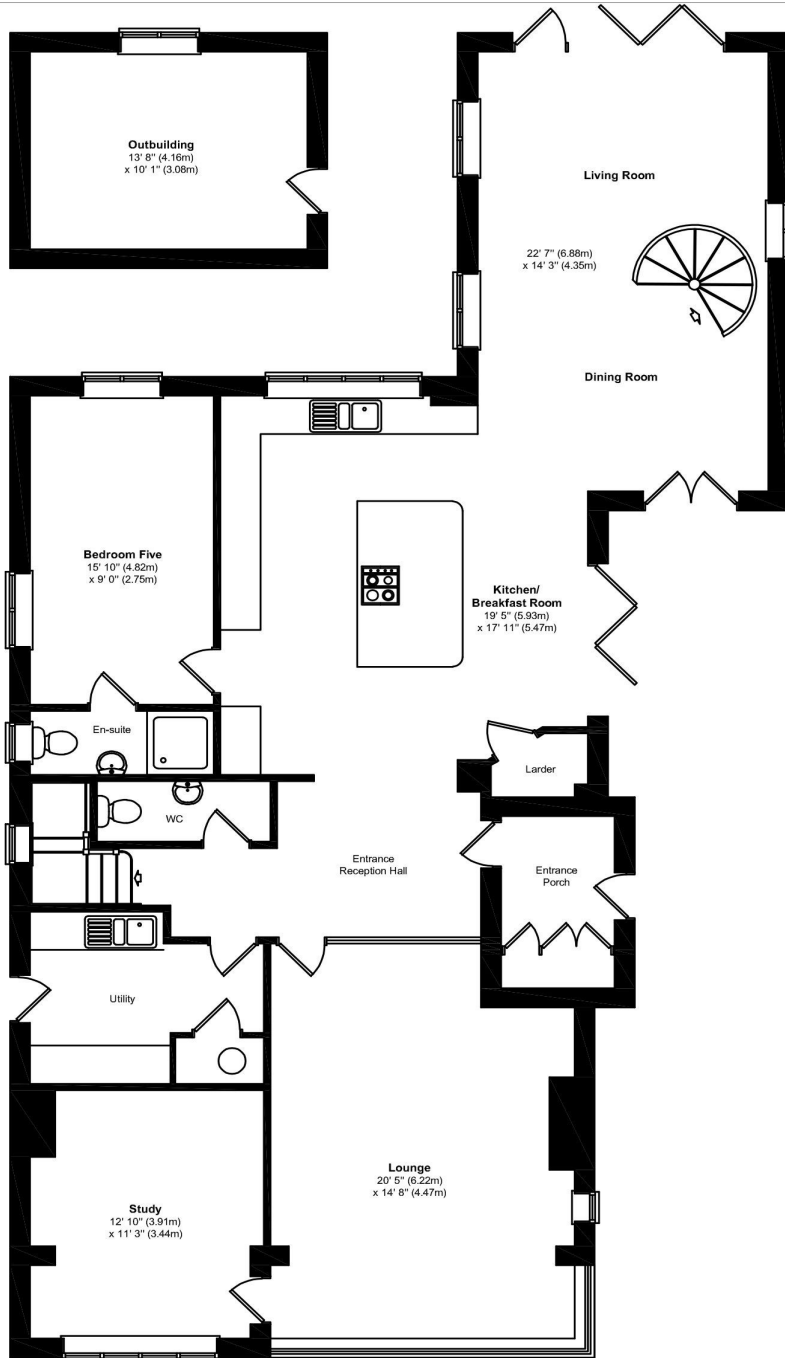

Local yacht clubs include the Royal Southern Yacht Club in Hamble and Warsash sailing club.

Whatever your boating style, the River Hamble makes it an ideal base from which to explore the Solent with easy day cruising to Portsmouth, Chichester and the Isle of Wight yacht havens, Lymington or Poole. When heading upriver in a tender to Botley you can enjoy some truly spectacular scenery.

At the nearby Swanwick Marina, you'll find a number of eating and drinking establishments to try, but if you'd like to stretch your legs a little more you can take a stroll out to the nearby riverside public footpath, which leads to the coastal pathway offering miles of scenic river and coastal walks.

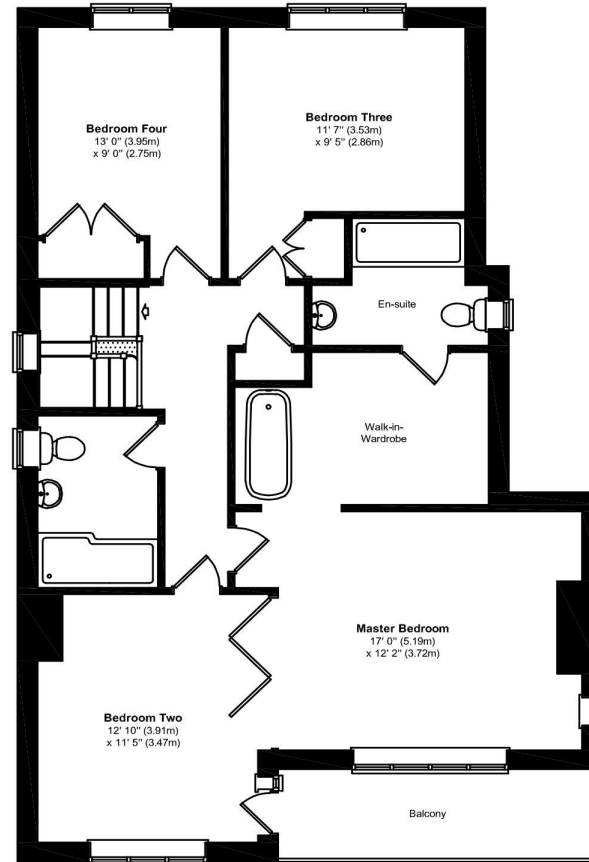

Nearby facilities & transport links If you like to food shop there are nearby supermarkets in Bursledon and Locks Heath. Just over two miles away is Whiteley shopping centre with an eclectic mix of restaurants and high street shops. Further afield, Southampton centre offers a wealth of shops, as well as restaurants, cinemas, and nightlife. There are A/M27 links to neighbouring cities, which include Portsmouth, Southampton, Winchester, and Chichester. Bursledon train station is within walking distance, which has direct links to Southampton and Portsmouth. Local schools include Sarisbury Green Infants & Primary, Bursledon Primary and Westfield Park independent, coeducational, day and boarding school for boys and girls aged 3 years to 13 years.
